Student Life, 81

It's those times when you laugh and those times when you don't.

It's that time to get up, and get ready for home.

It's that time to be serious, and get the job done, and to hold onto what you have . . .

It's that time to have fun or just be one of the crowd.

You can act or you can sing or think for a while but most of all it's that time to look back on the past,

because this is indeed
A Time To Remember.

Marc,

Hmmm... you're a real "Big" person! Oh, yea, you're nice too, a little weird but nice. I hope you do as well in swimming next year as I did this year and so did the year before. Good luck in the future. I'm sure you'll make it "big" as a sound effects man or a taste tester. Have a nice summer and don't forget to invite me over. Hee Ha "Well anyway Good luck at the awards banquet

Lauren-

I have the feeling that we are old army buddies who will always understand and care for one another regardless of the distance and circumstances that might be put between us. Together we have weathered the tyrannical Mrs. Loftus, my starchy spaghetti at June Mt., Crested Butte, and our acute cases of Senioritis!

Thank you for being a true friend.

With the warmest love and affection,

Julia ☺

Dearest Wendy,
You made it through this year alive — unlike what you thought in 9th grade. Now that you're starting 11th, you will most likely enter into a world of ____, as I did this year. I'll fill in the blank personally. You have grown into a much more confident and mature person, despite your "environment's wishes." ♡ I love you...

Lena-Bird: I'm truly at a loss for words, also very little space. What I have to say to you can be summed up in 1 word, Thanks! Our friendship has been one of the higher points of my life, it has also taught me a few things I never would have learned had I stayed in Philly & never met you. Don't let graduation also be our separation - because we have a type of friendship that never dies. Thanks for the fun & mischief we got into. Luv ya always

He's out of my life
He's out of my life
He's out of my life
And I don't know whether to laugh or cry
I don't know whether to live or die
And it cuts like a knife
He's out of my life
It's out of my hands
It's out of my hands
To think for a year he was here
And I took him for granted
Now the way that it stands
He's out of my hands
So I've learned that love's not possession
And I've learned that love won't wait
Now I've learned that love needs expression
But I learned too late
He's out of my life
Damn the love for him it goes deep inside
Now the way that it stands, he's out of my life!

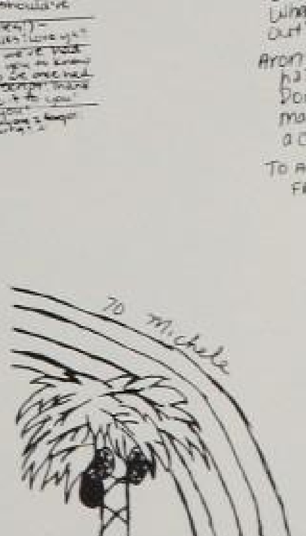
Orly,
I am glad we have become good friends even if we took a detour getting there. I don't think that I would have made it through these 3 yrs. at Fairfax, if I hadn't had true friends to stick by me. Well this last year here was probably the best, because we finally realized we are the best ones, and the others, the immature ones. All the childish things they are still doing and have done since Junior High School, we can now just look back and laugh! That is what we should have done all along. Well Orly, stick in there babe and you'll go far. Love you for being you, Kellie

Dearest Lisa, (Chomma) Jan 14, 80
"What can one do" "Have a good one," those were the good ole days. You are such a special friend to me. I hope you know that. Remember all those great times we've had. The BBQ, (blind dance) the double dates and our many trips to Westwood. And all those stories we had from our evenings out with your driving - not mine... Now to the mushy stuff I wish you the best in the decades to come. I hope you find that special person you're looking for. May we remain close friends forever.
Love Always, Sharon



To Mardie, Bernita, ELAYNE
Well it's time to say good bye to high school and hello to your future. We come along way together [illegible] some happy feeling and some sad ones. But most of all I enjoy being friends [illegible] were always there and I love you [illegible] wonderful people you are. (Maidie good luck) Bernita - You still have time to learn. Dear Mileva Radovic,
Oh well, It's been some year. I'm writing this in Jan. So only god knows what happens next. I'm glad we're friends and I hope it stays that way. I'm glad it never worked with any of those guys here. I still need time to grow-up. I hope you'll stand behind me & be my friend.
Love Always,

To All my friends,

Dearest Ian, [illegible, written upside down]
You don't know how close this came to not being written. (Remember January, our squabble) Well, I hope by the time we read this in the yearbook, we'll be able to laugh at silly troubles. Although we've only known each other for 3 years, I feel like we've grown up together. I know we've GROWN together in many ways. Together, we've shared countless experiences together & thru them we've learned much about each other & about life. I can't put in words what you do & always will mean to me. See ya at CAL
I Love You, Janie

"Bullseye"—
You've been the most beautiful answer to my S.O.S that I could ever have hoped for. I hope that, somehow, our futures will include each other; I wonder if we could surpass what lies behind us? You've made this year the most wonderful of my life. You have my love always

DEAR KATHY (KICKBACK)
Well-All I CAN SAY IS that YOU'RE ONE GREAT FRIEND. WE'VE been through so much together. It's AMAZING we're still alive. I'll never FORGET ONE memory ... Lemmon Candies, the week my parents went away (whoo YA!) stumblin in Birnies class. School BREAKS OUR STYLE, phil's house, concerts, rat poison, — work on sat. Eddie & marks surprise party (whoo) J.F. Shara Shar Alice. We did have fun! munchies, meeting at OUR spot. Sau-on - Remember our sunny lemon pies. Algebra class. The ultimate breakfast at Jack in the Box. Our shopping sprees in westwood & century city (HA). Your brothers party, Spec's party - my wonderful mom, she loves you. Joe Mama! Disneyland. (Space mountain) Getting stuck at the car wash and many more - you've been a super friend. Let's stay our crazy selfs forever....
TAKE CARE

BETTY (BOOP)

Dear Betty (Boop)-
Well, well, well, what can I say to a BUD? So many things to remember. The one thing I'll always remember is, running out of gas on Laurel Canyon with Larry, Haiker's parties, Scott, E.S.C.O.R.T., Chris, Styx, the Spot, Heinaken, Beach, Deathmobile, and of course Saltz. Can't forget, the good old ANIMAL.....We sure, had good times. I just hope after, that you'll still remember me. P.S. 13, 14.....WHOO-YA!
BARB BUD

Dear Colleen,
I've known you my whole life. In that time you've been a good friend. We just aren't as close as we were a while back. Just remember me when you go to college, because you'll always live across the street from me. We might be room mates up North. WHOO-YA.....

Jon-, Don't let Miguel truck on in to grease the cat! You're a special friend... Rachelle
Ian Though you're the most likely to have sodomy, you're still a special friend. One of these days I'll trade my UCLA jacket for a Cal but the Bruins rule the basketball court. From now on, I'll stretch so you don't have to bend so much. Do you still love RN? Love, Rachelle
Larisa- How could both your Stalin be Russian? I shall always value our friendship. We've survived both A.P. History and the Senior Cabinet. You're a special person. Love, Rachelle

Good-bye to the class of '80
Good-bye to all the crazy bunch who stuck together. We were all so close! I'll remember you. Maria-go ahead and be a stewardess. Lupe-stop getting your hair done all the time. Lourdes-don't work so much. Sharon-remember Bancroft? You will always be my [illegible]. Odette-stay out of Topa. Stuardo-you too! You guys are too much for it. Connie-don't break another ligament. To The Graduating class of 1980
Love R.D.O
Well it's about that time of the year for us to graduate. I hope all of you have a successful career. I wish all of you the best in life, Especially my friends Angela Martin and Jackie Brooks. Remember me always
LOVE Always and keep in touch
ROSALIND Devon Owens

Dearest Janie,
When "contemplating" our friendship, I realize how much it means to me. Who else can I grab on Space Mountain? I could not survive without the famous term-paper & book-report information center, whose clocks always show 3:15. Besides, I need Chico's help in talking--especially in a supermarket. Despite your "SNAPPY" sense of humour, I still luv U.
CHICKEN OR GO??? Sigal

Dearest Anita,
Although we seem to be together in the worst places, e.g. Physics, work--you have literally helped me get through both. I really don't care how many seconds there are in an hour! Tycho De Brahe should have been drenched in acid! The fingertips are messy!
Love Sigal

To Jeffery Owens
Someone whom I've not known long but long enough to say I've gained a friend and hope it comes to much more. Stay sweet! xx
P.S. Jeffery you're the best big brother! xx

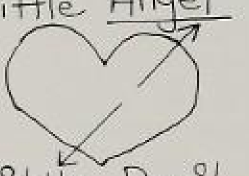
You make me so very happy
I'm so glad you came into my life
M.R.

Sandy,
I'll never forget our tenth grade year, you made it the best year at Fairfax High for me. Everything we said, was so funny. We were just two comedians telling jokes together. No matter how far you move away from me, I'll always be here if you need me. The best of luck in your near future.
Love,
Liw

DEAR MARILYN,
I THINK A FRIENDSHIP LIKE OURS IS AS RARE AS THE MAGICAL UNICORN. HOW ELSE CAN I EXPLAIN THE MILLIONS OF NUTTY AND INSANE THINGS WE'VE DONE TOGETHER, AND... SURVIVED!: WORK AT J.'S (YUCKOO), JOGGING, NOT JOGGING, SKATING, AND EVERYTHING ELSE! I KNOW ONE THING FOR SURE... LOVE AND OUR DIFFERENCES WILL KEEP OUR FRIENDSHIP GOING FOREVER!
LOVE ALWAYS,
JEANETTE

To All My Friends,
After 12 long years, it's finally graduation time. Time passes so quickly and changes us so much. Little do we know that Ian would become a gynecologist who, instead of preventing pregnancies, causes them; that Rachelle, who wants to be a doctor so much, would become a tree surgeon; that Anita, despite her Ph.D. in physics would become a hairdresser; and that Lauren would become an addicted gambler determined to win on number 47 when the roulette wheel only goes up to number 46. Who can tell what the future holds for us? All that I can say is happy graduation, good luck, and good life.
Thanks for all,
Love Jim

"Little Angel"


"Little Devil"

Jame and Soni.
We've been friends for nine years, and we had a lot of fun with you two! "What's the haps cool breeze?" Remember cruisin down Hollywood Blvd, and all our crazy situations that we got into!? "I just can't hang groove, cope or maintain." Our circle of spilling out all our secrets at four o'clock in the morning! How about Halloween and New Year's Eve! Well, you guys are a trip, and it's been fun. I can't wait till you move back to L.A. Well, take care and I love you both! If you need me, I'll be here! Love Always,
Laura

Dearest Larisa,
Can you believe the immense powers of the PSAT workshop? If it can create a friendship as strong and meaningful as ours... Being introduced to Culver City resembles being manipulated onto Space Mountain. I can still feel the weight of those UCLA books dragging us down...while you are fixing my purse. The insain phone calls at 3:00 in the morning.
We have gone thru so much... from Humpty-Dumpties, and "the best of both Worlds" to t.p. time and Alg.-Trig. tests, the studying for which we replaced by far "better" things... Fantastic memories from P.E. to P.S.
Larisa, don't ever change--stay the way you are!
Love ya Sigal

Dear Mary
We've been friends many years and I've enjoyed every minute of it. You're a sweet girl and a great friend. I wish you much luck and happiness in the future. Love Ya,

Liza-
We really have had some busy past months. Remember the first night at the Phi Delts-Skully's cowboy hat, David Maybe & Glen (choke)-House-decs at the FIGI's, running the track with Denver at 4:00 AM, Scott in the Pirate costume, the jacuzzi in Palm Springs & skiing in Utah. Someday we will find the perfect schtumps!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
I feel so fortunate to have met you. You are quite a special person. Don't worry about Architecture school- you are another Howard Roark. I know that someday we will meet on a country road in Sarlaut.
With much love & affection,

TIM- THROUGH IT ALL, THE GOOD STILL OUT-WEIGH THE BAD. WE HAVE GONE THROUGH MUCH, AND I'D LIKE TO SAY THAT I HAVE TRULY ENJOYED THEM: THE RUNNING, THE ROLLERSKATING, THE TALKING. YOU HAVE HELPED TO SHOW ME MANY THINGS, AND I HAVE LEARNED MUCH FROM BEING FRIENDS WITH YOU. I CAN STILL HONESTLY SAY THAT YOU ARE "ONE UNIQUE GUY." AND LOOKING AT THAT FROM MY POINT OF VIEW, "IT'S GOOD."

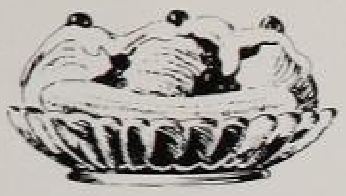
Our Dearest Madame Mason,
Il y a trois années, nous sommes entrés dans votre classe avec un rêve. Un rêve de parler français. Bien, après trois années d'éclaircissements, vous nous avez vraiment inspiré à remplir notre rêve. Nous vous remercions. Nous penserons toujours à vous et de votre philosophie de la vie. Avec Notre Amour, Jamie et Michel



My dearest Janie,
You and I are made out of beautiful memories that are so special, of Rowands and Crittenden, Mr. K and Poodle, The Walk Committee that proved to be undeserving of our great personalities, the new "exciting" experiences that you and I have undergone together, and so much more. You are truly special, maybe even special enough to inherit my Berkeley sweatshirt when I become rich and famous.
Love you always,
Larisa

Dearest Anita,
To a person I have always admired I wish all the sleep that your system may require, all the extra points to make life on Calculus worth living for, all the blazers you can get a hold of and all the other wonderful things.
Love Larisa
P.S. I also wish you a happy return of those kids the kind as you can want.

Julia — Well kid, we finally made it. Through all those days of homemade Burritos, Schoenman papers, rides to the beach, Planana, Sandye Cocoa, Xeroxed chapters, the Falafels, 6th period PE, ski trips, E.L.O., potato chips, Maggie & Eros (the horse), track meets, boy friends, backgammon games, Election Boards (and elections), Disneyland trips and on T.V. We've been through so much, and yet now we're just beginning. We've stuck together through all the ups, downs, changes, bad times, and good times. You are a true friend. Let's never let it end. I've seen you stumble
You've watched me fall
You know I've got nothin'
You know we've got it all.

Thru all these years
You've seen me stumble
I've watched your tears

Sometimes there was roses
Some times there was thorns
And I know we're gonna make it
As sure as I was born

And I hope from what you wanted
You get what you need
I know we're gonna make it
We were born to the breed

My dearest Little King,
We always wished for something "little", but what we got turned out to be so tremendous...From The Trial to the first date, Yesterday's, auditorium confessions, the slow one at Homecoming, PS anxieties, coffe at Denny's--we have come a long way, your majesty. All the sharing, caring and loving...all the secrets and fantasies...all the trust...made this little girl so fond of her little king, a truly exceptional person with so much to offer. Your qualifications for kingship are the highest: most incredible, caring, honest, admirable, ever-kind, loving. I will always love you nomatter what my life has to offer me. I hope your life will offer you love, inspiration, real, pleasant surprises, warm sunshine...And now I know what "emotionally drained" means.
Always loving,
Your little Princess

Vince Pucner: Well where do I start? At first I was just playing a game, but I didn't know it would turn out to be more. I also want to say I sort of met you last year when you were playing frisbee but this year was something else. It was an experience! It started out good but towards the end, we'll skip it. I'll always remember the Monday pizzas, the great football games you played in, etc! I hope that in the future you get what you want because you're a hell of a guy! You deserve it! You're a beautiful person and you've got a lot of feelings! I know that you do! I'll remember the good times we had and try to put the bad ones in the back of my head! Thanks again! Luv ya

Sunshine or Bridgette
God what can I say? I have to say for sure as hell we have gone through a lot. Let's start from the beginning - how I met you last year such as you being in I.S. class and then we started talking about certain people such as Nick and Joe Jackson! Then came Gymnastics! The banquet. Then the beginning of school with you and your football and me getting hit in the head, what about Monday pizzas, Tuesday morning breakfast till 4th period & our great football games, the senior pictures we had to take in the Oomlies, the crazy diets, salads, running after school, clothes, your hair, Tostados, certain guys for you and me, the long talks on the phone, Casa Cugats (my sweet 16) the strawberry Daiquiris, getting drunk, making certain phone calls, the fights. God I can go on! But I just want to say THANKS!
Luv you always Mileva

To my always lost, but nevertheless wonderful friend:
for all the jokes and "intense" moments, for Culver Cities and humpty-dumpties, for all the math sessions and government scores (along with English cheat reports), for all the times you made the sun shine on a rainy day, for all the things so stupid that we'll remember them forever, for everything else that made us so unique - I thank you and love you (out of closet).
Love, beth out of story

My irresistible chauffer, for the past three years I've felt this way and I'll finally say it - I love you too! I will always remember the class couple, the calc.-irrelevant business hour, and our deeply philosophical phone talks. We faced quite a few challenging experiences and came out on top, of course, as always will. I will always hold you dear for some eternal reason;

Cindy Haywood (& Brian)
Thanks for being a great friend. Also thanks for the talks and help you have given me when I needed it the most. I'm glad that we became better friends this year. Hope that we still can become better friends.
Keep up with volleyball!! Hope you have a great senior year! (Sure didn't, just kidding) How could I with all my problems with you know who, and who and what!

Thinking Of Someone Special:
I can only describe her by opening up my heart where she lives. She has done so much for me in ways neither of us can calculate. She has taught me the meaning of love and friendship, happiness and sadness. She is a rare person who has been loyal and true when many are superficial and false. Only the two of us can know how we withstood the pains of growth, change, and disagreement. We have shared much: running, skating, classes, Council; and Farmer's Market rendezvous, and during this time she has extended a part of herself which has now become a part of me. It is in these spirits that I dedicate my love and best wishes to Doris, who has given me beautiful memories and priceless gifts for the future. Love Jim

I cannot begin to describe the happiness that you "caused" me since I learned where your bathroom is located. I am still shocked that "IT'S SO BIG!" The Captain and Tennille have perfect timing with 47.02X10[4] more times. You made me realize how great clean cars are, and in this department, the other use of whip-cream is very handy. I never knew that Rodeo Drive provided such a good dance floor!

(Maybe we should wait until we graduate from college before we rob a bank.)

#28: Football season was fun, on field + off. You made great plays + passes and I loved the tackles but the best part was our friendship. Sorry we missed a few plays + lost the game, but I'm glad we're back on the field. Where we go now, neither of us know but hopefully one day we'll end up in the SUPER BOWL. The end of the game is drawing near and the outcome we'll know soon. Regardless of who wins or loses it's how we played that counts, and in this case friendship wins out.
LUV YA

OEC FOOTBALL TEAM: We had a few losses and a lot of wins, but we enjoyed both. We remember our fights before, during + after the game. Thanks for the wallets, watches + gold chains, also the sore throats, spiked feet and dislocated knees. Don't dare forget me! Good luck next year to all J.V. + Var. material. Know you're capable of bringing the championship to our school! –

What can I say that hasn't been said before? I think back to our chance meeting in August and can't believe all that's been learned, experienced and felt in such a short time. I'm glad that we were honest from the start and became best friends before coming closer. You've always have my love, care & best wishes, no matter where our paths lead. I'd mention many "inside" jokes and names and places that only you & I would understand, but let's get together sometime and reminisce. Many beautiful sunsets & moments in your future. Time is on your and my side. May we grow together. Thank, Pete

Ms. Meigs:

When I was young they packed me off to school and they taught me how not to play the game. I didn't mind if they groomed me for success, or if they said that I was just a fool. So I left there in the morning, with their God tucked underneath my arm, their half-assed smiles and the book of rules. So I asked this God a question and by way of firm reply, he said, "I'm not the kind you have to wind up on Sundays"

Dearest Jeff - #50

Love Always, Laura

Dearest Janie,
Together we have gone thru two schools and helped each-other thru difficult times. Now here comes the Big Split. But we will be friends forever 'cuz when two people grow up together, they live together always - even if they aren't really living together. (Huh?) Anyway - bequeath me some of your players in your will. Love Anita.
P.S. I don't think I'll ever meet and know another person as I know and love you. We're like sisters - but without the squabbles! LOVE!!
Sheldon - You're another best friend because we've shared so much over the phone. I feel close to you - will always
LOVE ANITA

Sigal - May Disneyland Domes hover over you when it Rains. May your life follow a frictionless path And may our friendship last forever. I have enjoyed the long (sooo long) phone con-versations we have had. They brought us so close. P.S. May Mr. K. go to.......

Ian - This is the tree being murdered: "Bang, bang. Ahhh! Chop, Chop. Sizzle, sizzle. Burn, crackle, burn. Sprinkle, sprinkle." This is our friendship: (2 crossed fingers indicating that we are very close friends + always will be.
LOVE ANITA

DEAR TOM - (HAIKES)
WELL ITS FINALLY OVER. YOU'VE GIVEN ME SUCH GOOD MEMORIES. TO GOOD TO FORGET. NOW WE HAVE TO GO OUR SEPARATE WAYS. WHEN ARE WE GONNA WRITE OUR SOAP OPERA WITH SMILES & PEACHES? I'LL LOVE YOU ALWAYS. BARB

Jill,
I know that if we've made it through all this, we can make it through anything and everything together! Jill, you're a great friend, and thanks you for always being there. We have shared about everything that two friends could possibly share. Talk about "trippin." I must say we trip the hardest. Our "deep discussions," "first-time experiences," "he must have been a pig in his last life!" Jill, we have changed and grown together. "Jokes below!" I love you, and will always be here for you. Take care and Good Luck.
Love Always, Laura

BURBANK RULES

DEAR KARI....
Our friendship means the world to me. I never would have survived without you always being there. We've had so many good & bad memories to look back upon. Now we're graduating and going our seperate ways, but let's don't ever lose our friendship!
Remember EWF concert (I hope your leg is better), my surprise party-e-ering you up all nite (thanx a-min), Numero Uno (on a diet), Zoos hondo, roller skating, Kev, Bruuce(and the rest of the gang at Joy), all those hours on the phone-including from Utah-(we could've kept the phone company in business), and the list goes on.
Thanx for EVERYTHING!
I LOVE YOU!

dear rob- january 15, 1980
well, we've made it through almost two years together, surprising, huh? I just want you to know it's been the best "almost two years" of my life. We've been through so much together, I can't believe it! Thank you for helping me through some "difficult times" when I really needed someone to talk to. You mean more than anything to me. never forget "alice cooper," Robbie, Disneyland, December, 1978," or any of the fun times we had together. I sure won't! No matter what happens in the future (Berkeley, Humboldt, sitting at home, etc.!) always remember, "you've got a friend" (who loves you!) Love Always, Colleen
"I only remember that you said hello in a voice that sounded like love."

Dear Blitzed-Boop
How ya doing ole pal - we've been through sooo much. Where can I begin?
Lets go down LEMON LANE - Remember all the times we munched out together! I'll never forget the "shopping spree" you and I went through during the summer in Westwood - $$$ (It was more like wasted days and wasted nights)! Also the good times with the shopping cart rides or shall I say falls!! (Bruise City)!
Don't forget the Sr. Picnic at Hinky's!! (I can go on forever)!!
You're such a great friend and I hope our friendship lasts forever and ever. It means a lot to me.
We really lived it up and made our own Kickback fun in school (what a joke)!! Love ya, Alise

Dear Boop
It's been sooo many years! 8 to be exact! Lets forget the bad times (like our accident) and continue with the good. Remember "[illegible]" [illegible] Blvd.
Love, Shell

Hey Hairball! you're the greatest! you've helped me in so many ways. Thanks for being the friend you are! Love Always, Shell

Sonia,
Well, eight years of friendship is a string in itself. It seems like we've been through "it all" as friends. So name a few memories: Palm Springs - Cockamockie "Excuse me, could you help us pick an arcade?" "Are you girls Italian?" "Pare la Brea." "Do you know where Alameda street is?" "Baby, baby gimme your heart, I'm gonna take it over my shoulder." Sonia you're a terrific friend. Thanks for the memories!! Don't forget, we still have to plan Third Street's 10 year reunion. Sop. I love you. Good luck and take care. Long live Laverne & Shirley! Love Always, Laura

To my special people: Those of you whom I truly love: Jacki, Theo, Stuart, Rob (you crazy), Brocklewood, Samuel 1 & 2, Lyd, Moms 1 & 2, Crystal, Jennifer, Greg, Marc, Mike, Dirk, etc. (you know)
Keep a fire burnin' in your eyes
Send a prayer to the open skies

Meri: It's been a long time, eh? Well, if our friendship has lasted this long, then its going to last forever! I don't have to mention all the "good" times coz, we already know 'em. But I have to mention Laurel Hills Rd. what a summer! Well, just keep rocking and rolling.
Love Joanne

Michelle: One day you and "Chan" will get together, I know it. But until then, "keep yourself alive." Remember all the things that happened at Fairfax last year, and never forget those cherished memories.
Love Joanne

Dear Larisa,
In 5 short (long) years, we've gone from casual acquaintances to S.O. friends. You're a great, super, friend whose friendship I'll always cherish. Even though you're going to Northridge, I'll still value you as a great person. Come to Berkeley & I'll share my dorm w/you.

P.S. aren't you glad we finally made it?

AW-
"Well, sorry for how it ended but I'll never be sorry or regret what we had! We had one fantastic friendship but I guess it went a little too far.
Just remember some of our great times: observatory, the Beach (day & nite), Marina Del Rey village, my b-day, UCLA parking lot, Utah, tutoring me for SAT, Roxbury Park, car dying on us, "Love Takes Time" I guess our love was a "masquerade."
Don't ever forget me cuz I'll NEVER forget you.
Love, Shell

GENE KRADJ,
Hey Paco! What would I have done all these years without you? Boy! Have we been through a lot! All of that tree climbing, TV, and boy watching has been the greatest. May I say that our friendship has played a major part in my past five years of life. You are what I consider a true friend who means much to me (that's not a compliment). You have helped me with many "confusing" problems and ideas as well as helped to shape my outlook on life (a "separate peace"?) Hélio, you're been the greatest sister. Love, Jenny

To All MY Friends: THANKS

A+J

Mr. Biegel:
I just want to say thank you for being a great teacher and friend. Thanks for all the help you have given to me. Also I would like to thank you for asking me to be apart of the basketball team as being a stat girl. And of course, you've always made my day by calling me a lazy swimmer.
Thanks again,
Mileva

Thank you:
Adam Sternberg – For keeping the spirits of all your friends high, for helping me take life a little less seriously and for never letting pain get the best of you. Your ability to make yourself oblivious to pain can often mean losing your sensitivity to many pleasurable emotions. Remember those breakdowns!
Ian Sitton – For showing the world that one can be very good-looking and intelligent at the same time, for opening up to me in the last few years, and for (not knowing it) prompting me to be more honest w/friends and family.
Barbara Paul – For letting me into your family, friends and heart, for listening to my many "loves" (but you & I know this one is going to go far), and for being able to party w/almost anyone – especially me & Nina.
Terry Aharoni – For caring for me and letting me care for you, for not letting go after I was gone, for staying one of my closest friends through and through, and for being one of the first girls unafraid to be honest with me.
St. John's Hospital – For taking good care of me while spending two months in traction. The hospitality of your staff made the time fly by. Thank you for giving me a rest from my hectic life and giving me some time for introspection.
Mrs Yamamoto – My ninth grade teacher turned principal. For always encouraging me, for giving me responsibility as editor of the school paper, and for teaching me that the best teacher not only gives out the right answers but tries to ask the right questions, prodding the student to solve his own problems.
Les Beaux Arts – For giving me a job with an incentive system where I received responsibility and self-satisfaction in return for my efforts. It beat popping corn and bussing tables.
Alexa Kent – For always being active in school activities although often unacknowledged. I have found a good friend in you. Although we didn't spend much time together, each talk has been meaningful and educational.
And my Teachers – For all contributing to my education either academically, emotionally, or both. Teachers never get the due recognition, but they keep on helping students.
Mickey Babian – For rides to school, lectures on hot/cold water faucets, and a touch of [illegible] in my life.

To all who contacted me while in the hospital – It is quite an honor to know so many care. You kept my spirits high and pain low.
To Fairfax High – For letting me put all my energy towards a good cause – council, drama, V-ball, etc. I grew the most in the three years attended and learned much about myself. For all those students complaining about Fairfax – You can do something; student council can be effective; if it isn't, you have no one to blame but yourself.
Fairfax – A beautiful campus w/beautiful people.
To Pain – For broken legs, broken hearts, broken spirits, torn morals, etc. Isn't it sad that it takes bad experiences to make most people appreciate the good ones. Pain is stronger than pleasure, but usually they come hand in hand.
I hope that all my friends are understanding and not insulted if their names weren't mentioned, but the list goes on and on ('til the bread's gone).
I've grown to lower my defenses and take some chances – you've got to if you want to advance in life. I thank all who touched my life, as I learn more about myself with each new personality – good, bad & ugly. Thank you for helping me grow,
Pat Lew
Ronald – It's knowing when to stop!

To A VERY SPECIAL PERSON: DEAR TO MY HEART, THERE ON MY MIND, ALWAYS AROUND WHEN NEEDED. A LOVELY LADY, TO WHOM I WISH ONLY THE BEST FOR. SOMEONE WHO HAS MEANT ALOT TO ME, AND HAS BEEN A BIG PART OF MY LIFE. A PERSON WHO WILL ALWAYS BE IN ONLY THE BEST OF MY MEMORIES. THANKS FOR THE MANY GREAT TIMES WE'VE SHARED TOGETHER. MAHAL KITA BABY...
FOREVER YOURS – J.B.

Alida –
Not quite a year, but yet I know my life will be spent with you.
Young, but knowing what we want together, and getting it – together.
Middle years, we have what we've wanted – together, and now we must use it – together.
Old, we've used what we had together, and now we must look back – together.
For life,
Your Little Girl

My Love,
the one you never thought you were. Though not admitted, intimate always. The times we've shared, the memories you were so afraid that would never gather, that did. The future plans there was always time for...that never happened...will they ever?? So much to write, so little space, so many things, so little time. Romance is so short, so bazzaar. Only true love does and will – always, last forever. I hope, in time, our paths cross continuously and that we always leave in the same direction and if by chance they should spread apart My love I give to you to hold, and if in need I shall always be there + my love
...somewhere
Always and Forever

Dear Chris,

Keep in touch. Don't ever change (well try not to) God bless you. Take care

Dad – Thanks for letting me find out more about you, your faults and feelings. It's been a pleasant change from a father that I was afraid to have failed.
Mom – Being strong when we were weak and uncertain, showing us all how to appreciate life a little more. Thanks for fighting w/me.
Jen – The "luv" of my life, eating, laughing, talking, fighting w/me. I may hide my love from you the most.
Thank you all for helping me, being there and letting me grow even closer. I'm sorry that I don't show my appreciation, but most kids don't. That doesn't make it right tho!

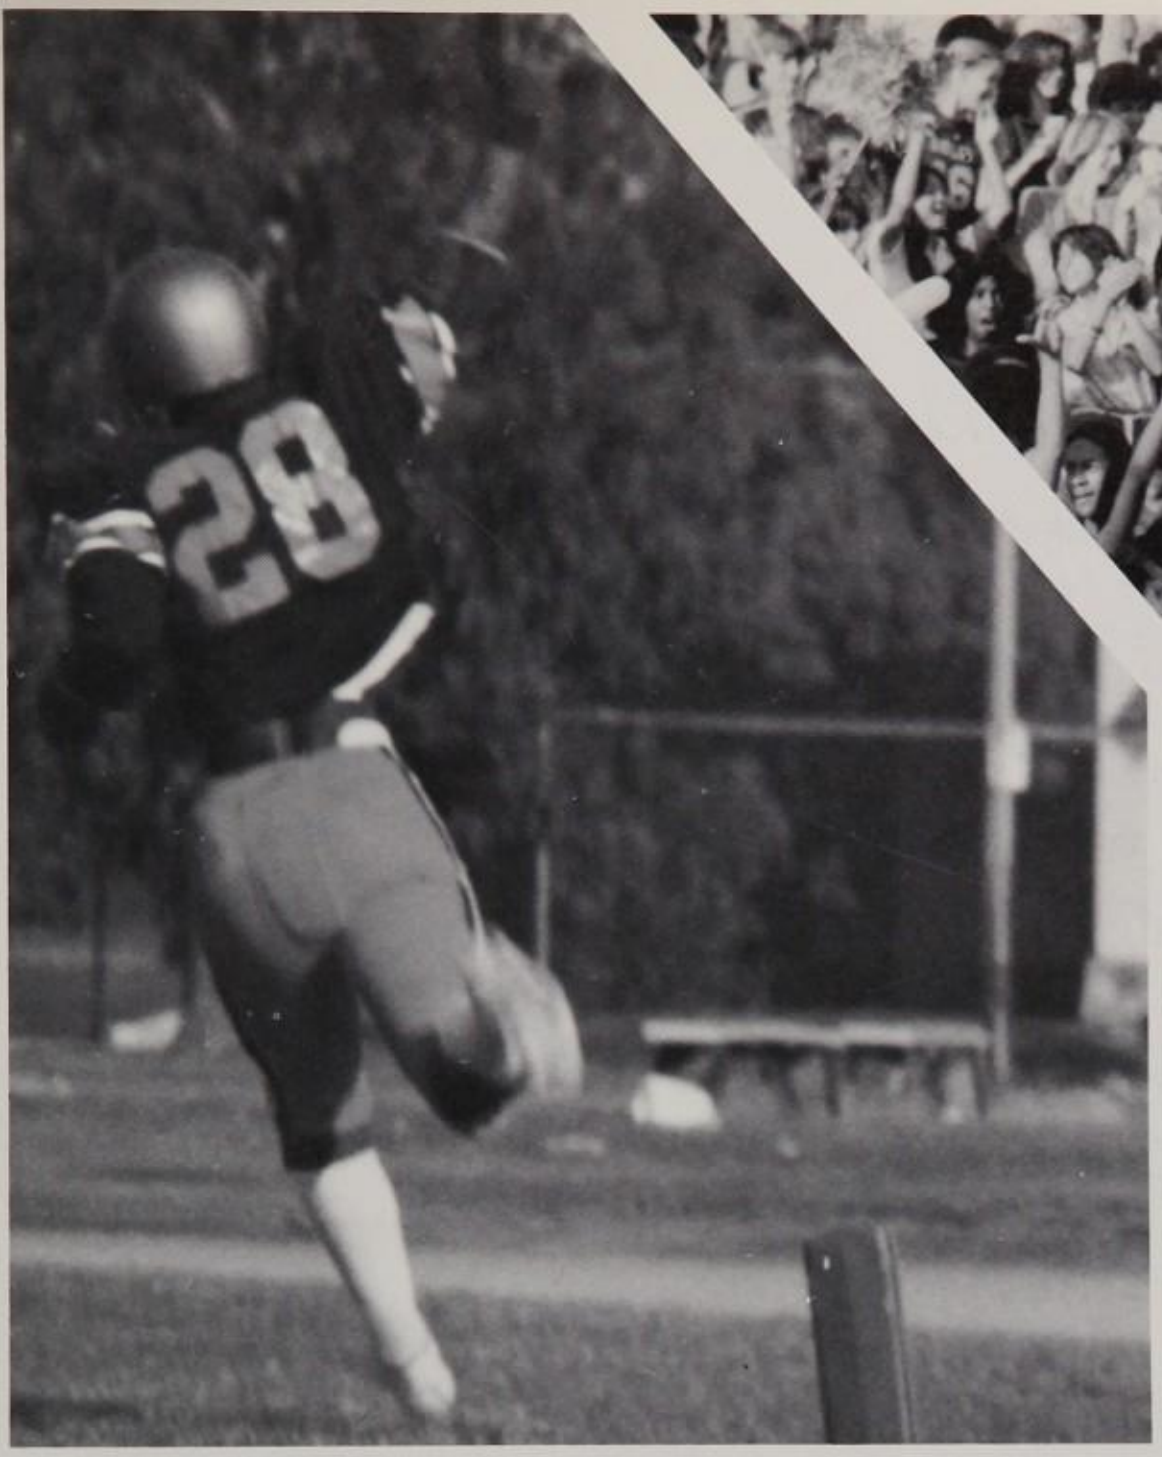
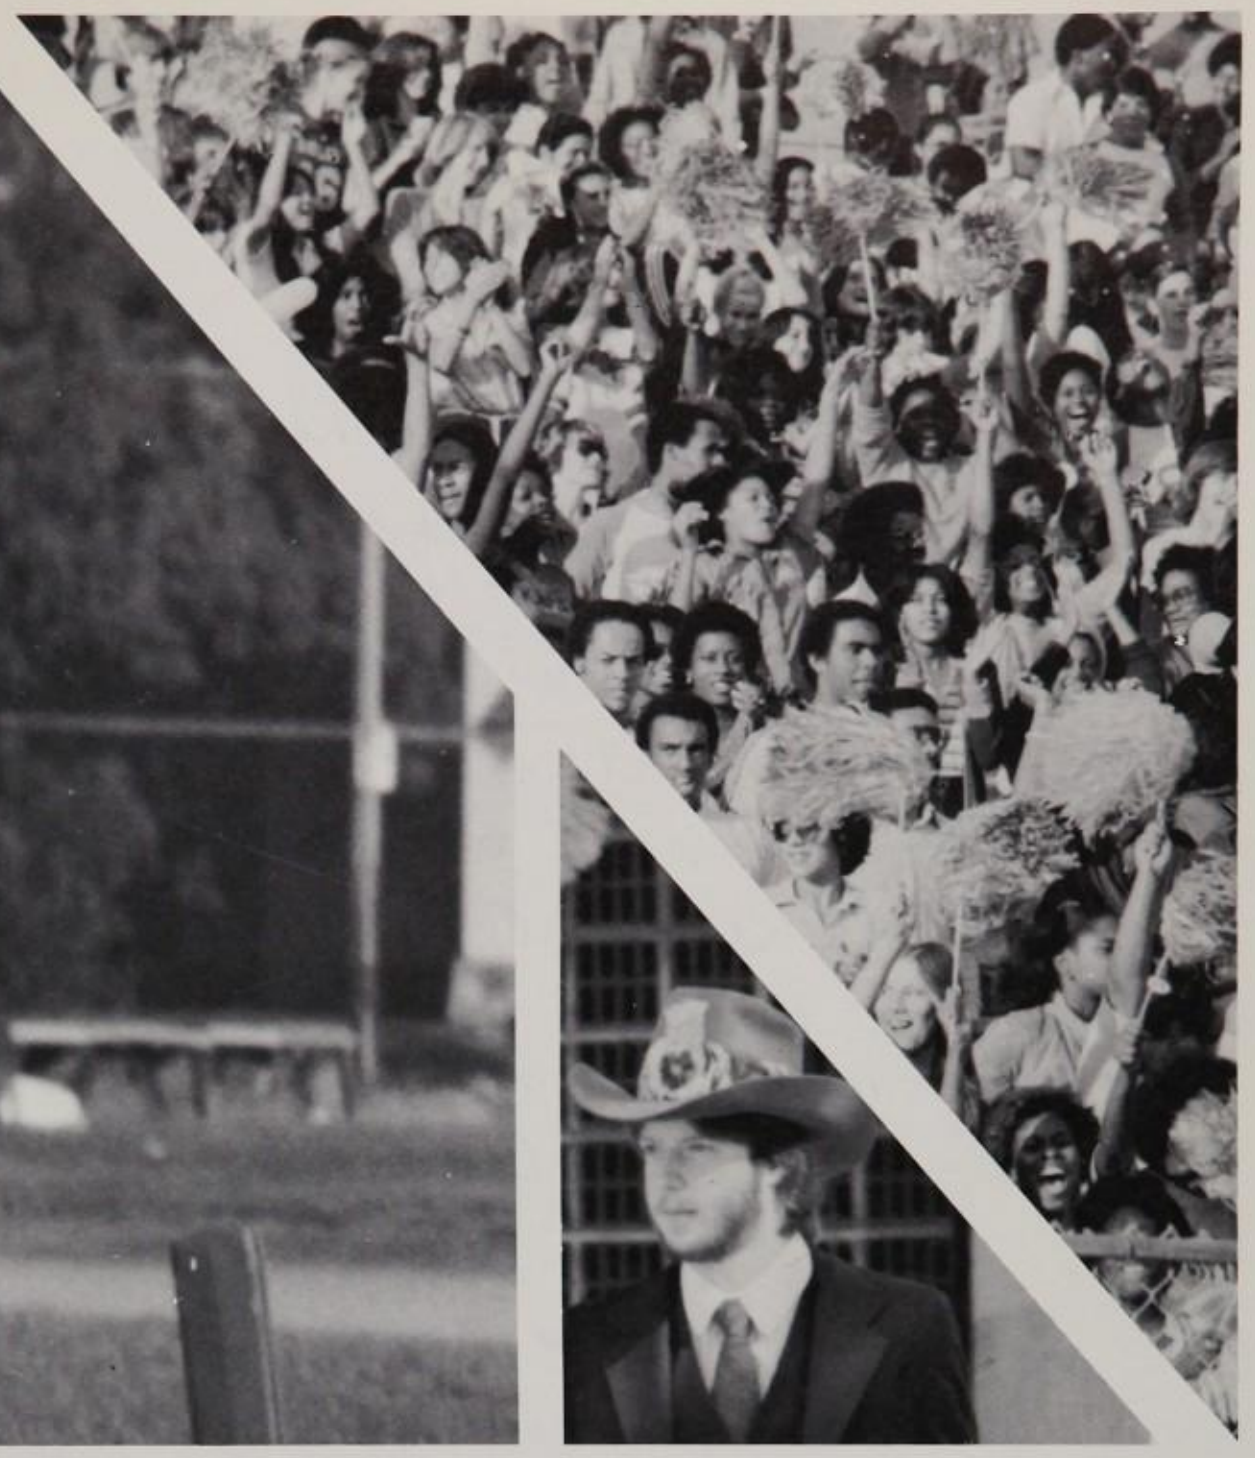
Playing their first season under the new league alignment, the Fairfax High School Lions captured the Pac 6 league. During the league season Fairfax defeated Hamilton, University, Manual Arts and Hollywood and lost a thriller to Belmont.

Honored as all league were seniors, Sidney Dodd, Reggie Jackson, Alex Rodriquez, Neil Hope, Sean Williams, and Joe Bennett.

In the City Playoffs, Fairfax lost to finalist, Canoga Park.





Hey Marc!

Wow! I'm so incoherent, but... what can I say? All these years, and here we are! I'm finally getting out. But, you'll survive, I trust. Anyhow, I'm very happy that we are the friends that we are. You have been a source of warmth, support, and overwhelming caring in these troubled times of mine, and for that I am forever grateful. I hope that I have touched your life, and have left some impact, as you have so greatly influenced mine. Very rarely do I get the chance to say to another human being how much I care, and love them. You are truly like a brother to me.

Need I say more?

(CINDY KNOW)

Marc, it's been two years now and you have a home. e have

Marc: Glad we've known each other for two years! This year has certainly been something from beginning till end! All the gossiping we did about everyone, Ondine, etc. I hope you will always remember me as being one wild and crazy girl! Don't forget all the girls I've had crushes on at all the swim meets. I promise I'll be back next year to root you on to a city championship. Your friend always!

Luv ya

The Lions posted a perfect 10-0 record in the first half of the season, and were a definite threat to unseat perennial power Grant, as East Valley League Tennis Champions. The Lions, expected to be in a rebuilding year, had a Junior laden team that has displayed great skill and determination. Led by nationally ranked Junior Jeff Klaparda, the Lions other Varsity standouts were Junior Steve Frank, Junior Steve Shapiro, Junior Shawn Cabalka, Junior Alex Lecher, and Sophomores Chris BonDurant and Jon Jacoves. Klaparda won the CIF Men's Individual Tennis Championship.

Come League finals there were many individual achievements. Winning first place in their events were Robert Neff in the Varsity 100 yd. breast stroke, Marnie Cody in the 10th Grade 50 yd. back and Pia Wong in diving. Also with strong showings were Marc Chapelle, Daniel Libraty, Brucegrama, Bret Herz, Teresa O'Reilly, Danny Shaner, Michelle Lecher, Pam Mittag, Jan Golstein, and Cindy Konow.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENTS

The school year 1979-80 now leaves only memories, reminiscences over the successes and struggles that were Fairfax High. Remember how well our school achieved this year, and recognize who made it possible—we did—for we are Fairfax.

People—not things—individuals—not groups—make up Fairfax. From the person who sat beside you in class, to those who became heroes on the athletic field—from the people who represented Fairfax's finest in academics, dramatics, or student government, to the student who never joined a single club—you are the people who made Fairfax what it is—a place to learn of life and others, to help one and all go forth into this world and achieve the greatest possible success.

May you have the courage to challenge the unknown. May you have the will and strength to be unique and to choose your own values and still recognize the values of another. May the successes in your life be many and the happiness that you find be boundless.

Remember, forever, those who were Fairfax!

Robert Neff
Student Body President, Fall '79

We, the Continentals, leave Fairfax to enter a world so volatile that each passing day is of great significance. We are faced with daily social, political, and economic changes to which we must adapt. As individuals, we now take our places in this world, shaping our own lives and influencing others around us. The knowledge and understanding we have gained at Fairfax unite us in our attempts to make our world the best it can be.

Haya Handel
Senior Class President, Fall '79

Life seems to be the sum of a great many choices. Some of those choices are made spontaneously, while other decisions require deep contemplation. Our years at Fairfax have prepared us to meet the challenge of making these decisions and to learn about ourselves, those around us, and our society. Along with these discoveries and, of equal importance, we have learned about the value of an education. These elements have combined to create within each of us the ability to encounter our choices with the type of confidence that leads to success.

May each of our personal paths reflect happiness and the brightest of futures.

Michael Africk
Student Body President, Spring '80

The graduating class of 1980 consists of a very special group of people. We are the generation leading a new decade that will bring alternate fuel resources, new and improved methods of production, improved methods of transportation, innovative computer systems, and vaster space exploration. The new decade holds for us a closer and more efficient unity with our environment. Even our class name, the CONTINENTALS, foreshadows the new unity among people. Our feelings toward the new technological, social, and moral values are changing as illustrated by our class motto—"AN OPEN MIND IS THE KEY TO SUCCESS."

Our experiences at Fairfax have been factors that will shape our future roles in society. We all hold different memories, but we now stand together as we watch the future become today. Good luck, and may you find your answers to success.

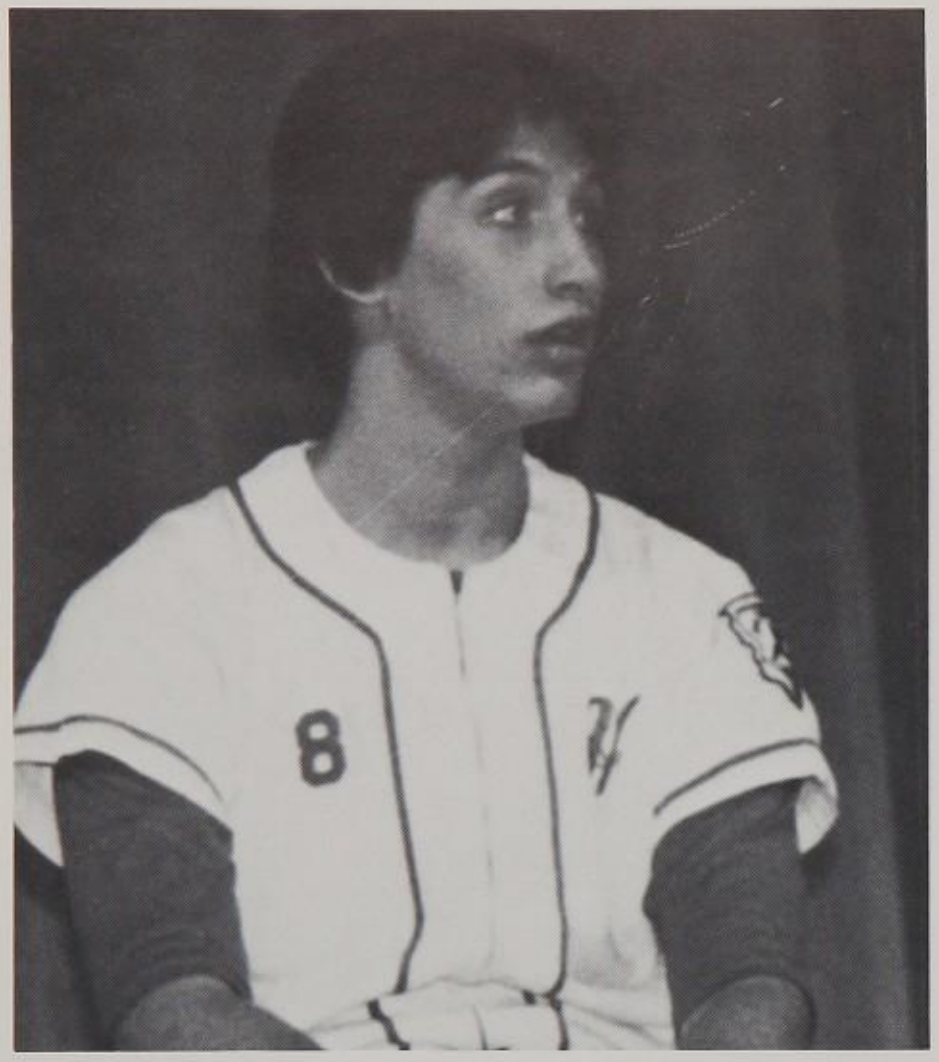
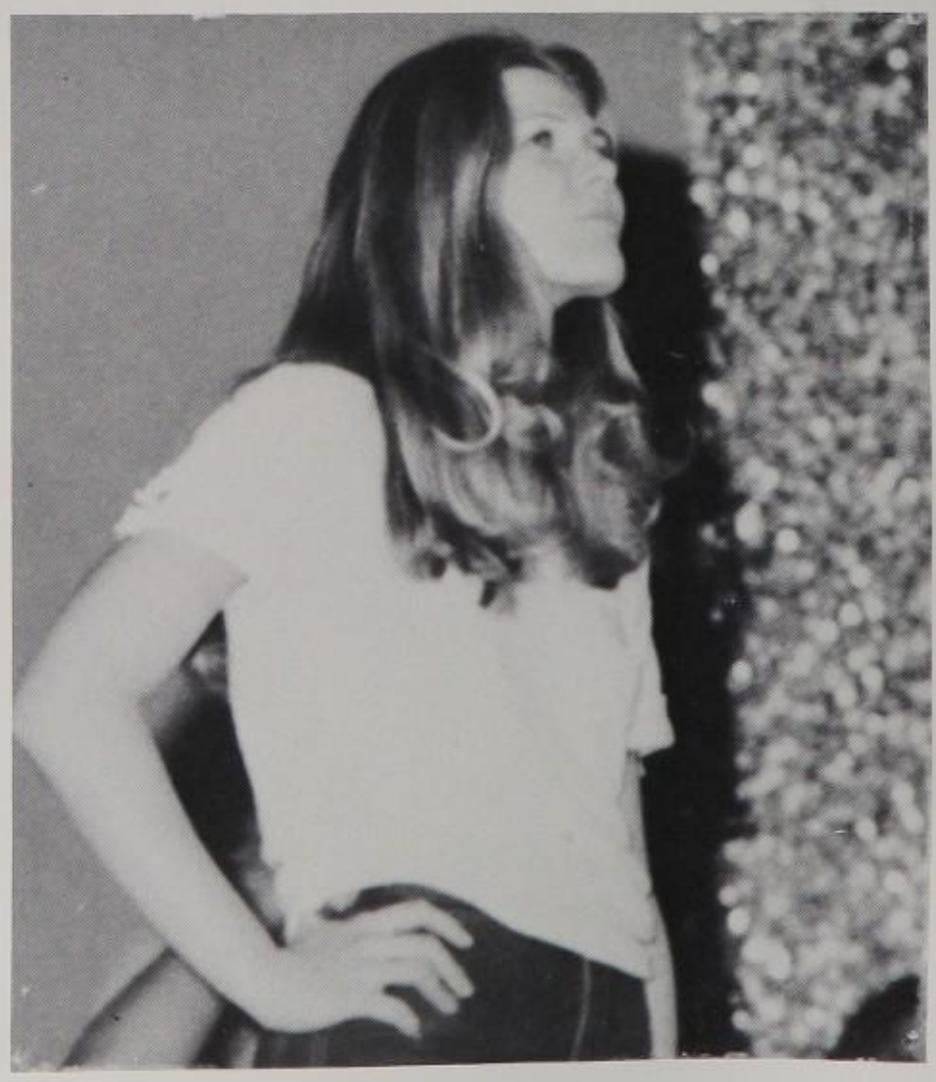
FAIRFAX DRAMA DEPARTMENT



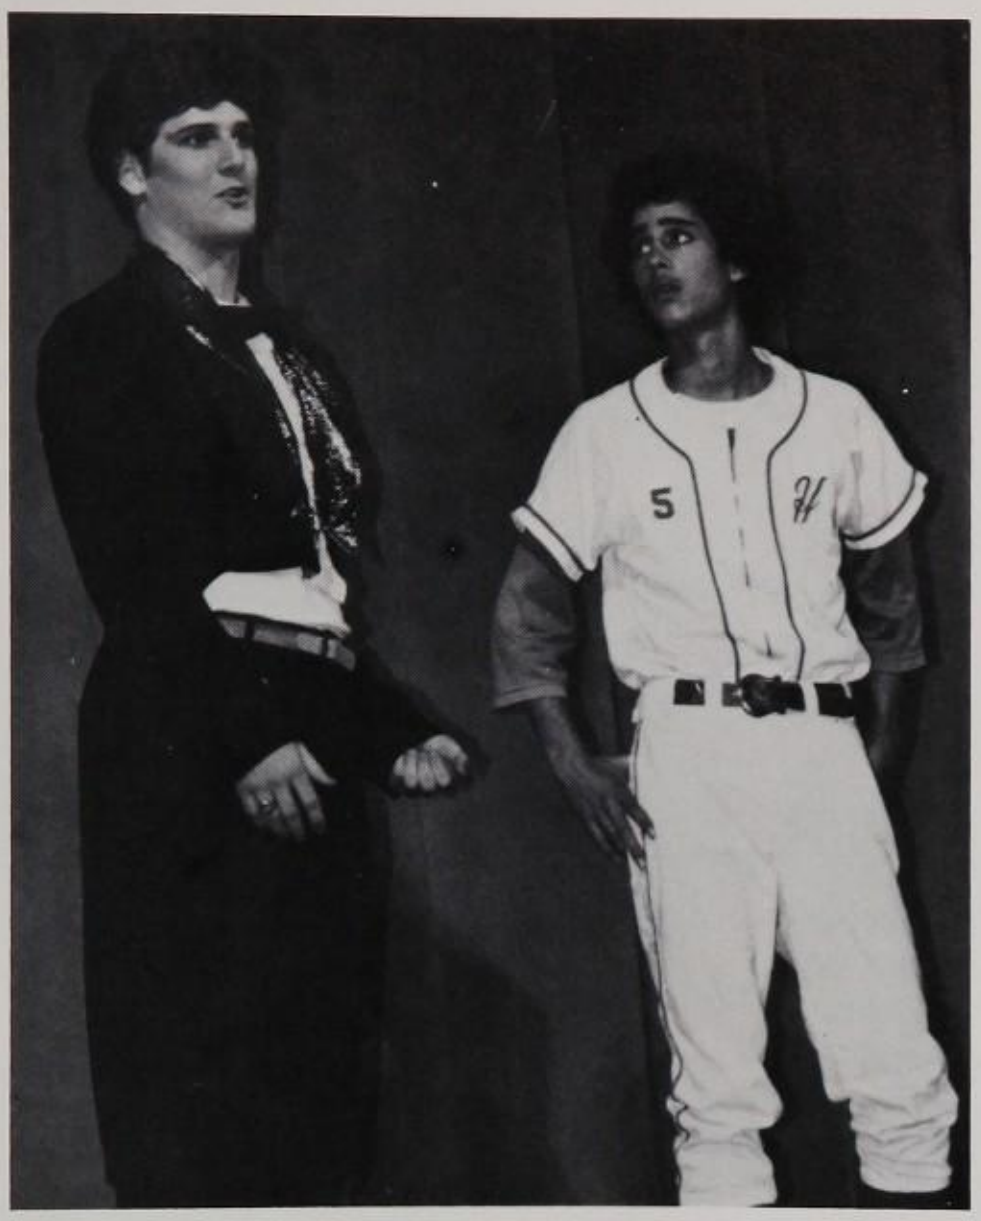
Another Hit! Rainbow Wins

"Just Before the Rainbow" was an extraordinary one-act musical written, directed, and conceived by Stuart K. Robinson. The plot centered around nine people who mysteriously found themselves trapped in bizarre, unfamiliar surroundings. They eventually concluded that they were dead. Throughout the play the nine characters revealed their personalities and past experiences. Assuming that they were in a state of purgatory, they began judging each other to decide who is fit for heaven and who is fit for hell.

On March 26th, the day after the performance at Fairfax, the Fairfax Theatre Arts Department competed against other senior high schools in the annual Drama Festival and triumphantly won. Larry Zerner, Elana Maggal, Lyle Brookins, Kevin Ware, and Dana Webber received Honorable Mention awards.



1980 SPRING MUSICAL "DAMN YANKEES"



The Fairfax musical production of "Damn Yankees" completed a successful three-day run on May 31.

"Damn Yankees" is the story of a man, Joe Boyd (played by Mr. Biegel), who spends many months during the year watching baseball games on television. His wife Meg (Erica Hornle) constantly nags at Joe for ignoring her over baseball. Joe never listens to her, however, because he is always dreaming of becoming a super hitter for the Washington Senators baseball team and avenging the New York Yankees. To defeat the Yankees, "I'd sell my soul!" Joe exclaims. Suddenly Applegate (Jeff Chean) the Devil appears and changes Joe Boyd to young Joe Hardy (Micheal Lesser), the baseball star. Joe should be happy when his wish comes true, but it isn't long before he begins to miss his old life and Meg. He pleads with Applegate to change him back, but Applegate is obstinate and refuses to listen. Applegate then sends Lola (Lori Russo) to seduce Joe and convince him to remain Joe Hardy, but the plan backfires when Lola falls in love with Joe and helps him get back to his wife.

"Damn Yankees" was an excellent display of the great talent and potential of the Fairfax High Drama Department.

Fairfax played on even terms with Lincoln in the opening half, and then after giving all they had during the first two quarters, folded up, permitting the Tigers to shove over four touchdowns and two conversions in the second half. Captain Walt Elliot played a brilliant game for Fairfax.
